

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

CLIMATE WEEK 2023

OCT 30-NOV 3

EVERYDAY

RIGHT YOUR FUTURE

12-1PM LIBRARY

Come draft letters to local leaders and government officials on your opinions of the climate crisis and necessary action!
Monday Location: Malone Mall.

OCTOBER 30TH

1.5 MINUTE TALKS

12-1PM MALONE MALL

Join us for open microphone climate talks. Anyone can speak and share their perspectives.

LOCAL RECYCLING PANEL: THE INS AND OUTS

3-4PM 1-132 WILSON

Learn where it goes, what it costs and how it impacts the climate!

PUMPKIN CARVING PARTY

5:30 OUTSIDE NORM

Come together with friends for a free and sustainable pumpkin to carve!

EMPOWERING YOUTH, ENFORCING RIGHTS:

HELD V. STATE OF MONTANA 4:30 MASTER

CLASS 6:30 PUBLIC LECTURE NORM 165

Learn about the recent landmark climate victory in the Held V. Montana court case and hear the next steps.

OCTOBER 31ST

SUPPORTING OURSELVES AND EACH OTHER

AS WE FACE THE CLIMATE CRISIS

1:40-3PM ROBERTS 312

Learn about the effects that climate change has on individuals' mental health.

NOVEMBER 1ST

VOICES OF THE ECO-RIGHT

12-1PM REID 103

Hear stories from conservative climate activists, and ideas for solutions.

CLIMATE CHANGE AND DEMOGRAPHY

3-4PM ROMNEY 415

Dr. Cascade Tuholske will discuss what the data means, both at home and globally.

CAREERS IN CLIMATE: INSIGHTS FROM

PASSIONATE CONSERVATIONISTS

6:30-7:30PM NORM 165

Join us for a panel discussion exploring the diverse opportunities in the climate field. Learn about law, field work, journalism, and more!

NOVEMBER 2ND

FOSSIL FREE RESEARCH AND BEYOND

12-1PM NORM 337

Students from Brown University will present their research of fossil fuel funding at universities.

THE TIME IS NOW TO SAVE THE POW!

& COMMON GROUND

6PM BYKER AUDITORIUM

View the premiere screening of two films directly related to climate change.

NOVEMBER 3RD

CLIMATE THEMED CONCERT

4PM REYNOLDS RECITAL HALL

Join us for a climate themed concert performed by MSU faculty and students.